Who is AstraZeneca?

AstraZeneca (“AZ”) is a pharmaceutical company that makes brand name prescription medicines. It is NOT an insurance company. AstraZeneca wants to make sure that the people who need the medicines they make can afford them.

Do you take any AstraZeneca brand medicines?

If you take AstraZeneca brand medicines, such as the ones listed below, you may be able to save on your prescriptions:

- ARIMIDEX® (anastrozole)
- ATACAND® (candesartan cilexetil)
- CRESTOR® (rosuvastatin calcium)
- NEXIUM® (esomeprazole magnesium)
- PULMICORT FLEXHALER™ (budesonide inhalation powder, 90 mcg & 180 mcg)
- RHINOCORT AQUA® (budesonide)
- SEROQUEL® (quetiapine fumarate)
- SYMBICORT® (budesonide/formoterol fumarate dihydrate)
- ZOMIG® (zolmitriptan)

Full Prescribing Information is available at www.astrazeneca-us.com, or by calling AstraZeneca at 1-800-236-9933.

What is AZ&Me Prescription Savings program for people with Medicare Part D?

- It’s a program that gives AstraZeneca medicines, at a low cost, to people with Medicare Part D, who can’t afford their medicines, if they qualify
- It is not a government program or an insurance plan
- There is NO cost to sign up for the program (no fees or premiums)
- Enrollment is easy

Here’s how you qualify:

If you are enrolled in a Medicare Part D prescription plan AND

- ✓ You are taking medicine made by AstraZeneca listed in this brochure AND
- ✓ You are an individual with an annual income less than $30,000 or a couple whose income is less than $40,000 AND*
- ✓ You have already spent at least 3% of your annual household income out-of-pocket this year on your prescription medicines

You may be able to get your AstraZeneca brand medicines for $25 or less.

AZ&Me does not replace your existing Medicare Part D prescription coverage plan.

*Current income limits are based on 2007 program guidelines and might change; income limits may be higher in Alaska and Hawaii.
